Kick off for food festival

FOOD, glorious food will be spilling on to plates across Hampshire.

Wickham Vineyard was the spectacular sunshine setting for the launch of the Hampshire Food Festival.

The event was hosted by Michelin-starred chef Atul Kochhar at his Vatika restaurant at the vineyard which offers innovative British cuisine with an Indian twist.

Raymond Blanc also helped to give the launch a star-spiced launch.

There will be plenty of attractions at what promises to be the biggest food festival to date.

Boasting more than 140 different events at locations across the county the gastronomic extravaganza is a celebration of the county's fabulous food, delicious drinks and talented chefs.

The Hampshire Food Festival programme detailing all events is available by calling 0845 603 5636 or signing up at hampshirefare.co.uk.
